

On motion of Mr. Giles, the house resumed the consideration of the unfinished business of yesterday, being the bill reported by Mr. Ford, entitled, a supplement to the act to fix and make permanent the salaries of certain officers of the civil government.

The question before the house being upon the motion to fill the blank in said bill.

Mr. William's motion being to fill the blank with "thirty-five hundred," and Mr. Bowie's to fill the blank with "five thousand,"

Mr. Simmons moved to refer said bill and amendments to the consideration of the next General Assembly,

Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred and was put, on filling the blank with "five thousand" (being the largest sum,) and Determined in the negative.
